

BULLETS AND BOMBS.

Another Bloody Riot Between Police and Anarchists in Chicago.

THE COPS HOLD THE FORT.

A Number of Police and Anarchists Killed.

A DESPERATE BATTLE FOUGHT.

The Police Use Revolvers with Deadly Effect.

THE ANARCHISTS USE BOMBS.

Threatening Crowds Surround Factories in the Suburbs of Milwaukee.

A BLOODY FIGHT EXPECTED.

The Eight Hour Movement Gathering Strength Throughout the Country—Hundreds of Employers Concede the Demand.

A Bloody Riot.

CHICAGO, May 4.—A riot just occurred near the corner of Michigan and Twenty-second streets. A crowd of striking lumbermen and adherents made an assault on a body of police in that vicinity. The police charged the crowd repeatedly and were stoned and fired at by the rioters. In the encounter Detective Michael Granger was seriously and probably fatally injured by a flying stone. Officer John Strong was shot through the hand. Squads of police are hurrying to the scene. A number of rioters are reported shot. The casualties are not yet known.

3 p. m.—The southwestern portion of the city this afternoon was the scene of another riot. Towards noon a crowd of anarchists and friends assembled on the corner of Eighteenth and Morgan streets for the purpose of holding a meeting. It is also said they intended to renew the attack on McCormick's reaper works. The police who had been notified of the affair kept a close watch upon the proceedings. Hostilities commenced at 2:30, just in what manner cannot be learned. A number of detectives in citizens clothes mixed with the crowd, numbering at this hour nearly 1,000 persons. Detective Mike Granger, of the Central station, attempted to arrest a disorderly man. The detective was immediately set upon by a howling mob. Before he could escape he was struck in the forehead by a brick, knocked senseless and badly injured. Revolvers were drawn and indiscriminate shooting began, during which Officer John Strong was shot in the hand. A number of rioters were also injured. The police charged on the crowd and made seven arrests, capturing the man who threw the brick at Granger. At three o'clock the entire southwestern district of the city was wild with alarm. Details of police are awaiting orders at the Twelfth and Lincoln street station.

3:15 p. m.—The police succeeded in dispersing the crowd which opposed them in the police district. Some crowds still remain in the neighborhood, but the large number of police now on the ground are considered sufficient to quell any new uprising in that vicinity.

Another Riot.

CHICAGO, May 4.—At the meeting of anarchists on the west side to-night a terrible riot occurred. The police were driven upon, and repelled with deadly effect.

A man who was in the crowd received a pistol ball in the thigh and was brought to the central police station. He says that during the progress of the speech by one of the anarchists a squad of officers marched by close to the speakers stand. Some one shouted, "Kill the police!" and almost as soon as the words were uttered three bombs were thrown from near the stand into the midst of the squad of officers. They exploded instantly and five policemen fell. Others were wounded, and several of the anarchists did not escape. An officer who had just arrived from the scene says there is hardly any doubt that at least five officers were killed. Persons living on the west side, who were in the crowd, were driven back by the explosion of the bombs, which was terrific, was instantly followed by a fusillade of revolver shots.

More serious accounts are coming in, and they point to a much more disastrous affair than at first reported, and about 250 officers had been detailed to the scene, and had been in the vicinity since the riot broke out. At the time of the throwing of the bombs the crowd had dwindled to a few persons. The police charged back slowly, the speakers still urging them to stand firm. Suddenly bombs were thrown, and the police retreated, instantly with a volley from their revolvers. The rioters answered with theirs, which the squad followed with a volley from their revolvers. The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged. The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The Contagion Spreading.

CHICAGO, May 4.—[Special Telegram.]—A large majority of the employers and employees have calmly discussed their differences, and the result is the satisfaction of both, and would now be at work if they were sure the lawless element would be controlled by the police. This element is still industriously at work in some quarters, particularly in the lumber region, but has generally been precariously kept from spreading.

One or two threatening crowds have been dispersed by the police without bloodshed. The police enter upon this sort of service with spirit, and the engagements have invariably been short, sharp and decisive. The striking element is not at all inclined to put new men at work, and these, as assisted by clerks and others, are taking care of all the business offered, though not as promptly as might be wished.

A mob near the corner of Eighteenth and Brown streets was dispersed about 2:30 p. m. by a squad of police. The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

The rioters were driven back, and the police followed them, and a fusillade of revolver shots was exchanged.

MAILS BY AMERICAN SHIPS.

The Postoffice Appropriation Passes the Senate With the Amendment.

Text of the New Provision.

Weaver of Iowa Retains His Seat in Congress by a Strict Party Vote of the House—Other Legislation.

The Senate's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Mr. Hoar, to-day, presented a letter, received from Emmett Tompkins, secretary of the Ohio legislature, in relation to the proposed amendment to the constitution of that state.

St. Louis, May 4.—The Missouri Pacific strikers applied for reinstatement this morning. The company took back as many as it could supply with work, but the majority of them could not be accommodated. Trackmen and conductors were ordered to work on the strike, and the company took back as many as it could supply with work, but the majority of them could not be accommodated.

The Strike in the Southwest.

KANSAS CITY, May 4.—The Missouri Pacific strikers applied for reinstatement this morning. The company took back as many as it could supply with work, but the majority of them could not be accommodated. Trackmen and conductors were ordered to work on the strike, and the company took back as many as it could supply with work, but the majority of them could not be accommodated.

The Revolution in Boston.

BOSTON, May 4.—About 4,000 men, comprising a majority of the shoemakers, carpenters, painters and plumbers, struck this morning for a shorter day. Work in the city was in a great measure suspended throughout the day and suburbs. There is no disorder. The Master Builders association issued a circular to the employers, advising them to stand out for principle against dictation.

Shop Men Walk Out.

DETROIT, Mich., May 4.—The employees of the Michigan car shops did not return to work this morning. A few desired to do so, but feared violence. A committee was appointed by the strikers to ask the employers for ten per cent. advance in wages, and an advance of fifteen per cent. which was refused.

A Country Town Cremated.

PITTSBURGH, May 4.—The town of Fairview, Erie county, was flame-swept yesterday afternoon. Scarcely a vestige of the business portion remains. The conflagration broke out in the night, and the flames were so intense that the firemen were unable to reach the burning buildings. Loss, $100,000; insurance, $50,000.

Rochester's Blaze.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 4.—The Dispatch's Rochester (Minn.) special says: A fire broke out in Willinger's furniture store, on Broadway, last night, and destroyed several buildings. Loss $12,000, partly insured.

Less Work and More Pay.

JERSEY CITY, May 4.—All weavers and others employed in the silk industry at Union Hill, Jersey City Heights, and West Hoboken, reaper works, and other places, have agreed to work for less pay, and on a reduced scale of pay. About 2,500 persons are out of employment.

The Favorite Tune.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The piano makers claim twenty-three shops needed to the demands for eight hours.

Eight Hours in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Only 600 men are locked out, two-thirds of the employers having acceded to the demands.

Labour Troubles at Other Points.

JERSEY CITY, May 4.—The striking silk weavers at Union Hill were joined today by the employees of the West Hoboken reaper works, and other places, and the strike was extended to the entire city.

The Favorite Tune.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The piano makers claim twenty-three shops needed to the demands for eight hours.

Eight Hours in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Only 600 men are locked out, two-thirds of the employers having acceded to the demands.

Labour Troubles at Other Points.

JERSEY CITY, May 4.—The striking silk weavers at Union Hill were joined today by the employees of the West Hoboken reaper works, and other places, and the strike was extended to the entire city.

The Favorite Tune.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The piano makers claim twenty-three shops needed to the demands for eight hours.

Eight Hours in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Only 600 men are locked out, two-thirds of the employers having acceded to the demands.

Labour Troubles at Other Points.

JERSEY CITY, May 4.—The striking silk weavers at Union Hill were joined today by the employees of the West Hoboken reaper works, and other places, and the strike was extended to the entire city.

The Favorite Tune.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The piano makers claim twenty-three shops needed to the demands for eight hours.

Eight Hours in Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—Only 600 men are locked out, two-thirds of the employers having acceded to the demands.

Labour Troubles at Other Points.

JERSEY CITY, May 4.—The striking silk weavers at Union Hill were joined today by the employees of the West Hoboken reaper works, and other places, and the strike was extended to the entire city.

The Favorite Tune.

NEW YORK, May 4.—The piano makers claim twenty-three shops needed to the demands for eight hours.

Eight Hours in Washington.

WORRYING OUR PRESIDENT.

Cleveland Put Out by Reports of His Coming Wedding.

A SECRET MARRIAGE HINTED AT.

A Favorable Report on the Bill to Re-build Nebraska's Frontier Fort—The Bill Granting New Land Districts Signed.

The President and His Wedding.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—[Special Telegram.]—There seems to be a feeling among those who claim they know all about the matter, that the president has grown quite restless under the immense amount of gossip which is being published about his approaching wedding, and they say he is anxious for the wedding to take place and be over.

They even go so far as to say that he has a deep laid plot to fool everyone about the date. He seems to be put out by all the jabber from the Folsom family and wonders where the next one of his bride elect's relations will turn up and say it is all fixed. The plan Mr. Cleveland has now in view, is to give out that he is going to New York on Decoration day, that is very near June, and then elude the watchers and flee to his bride, marry her, and have it all over before anyone knows anything about it.

The behavior of Governor Wever when he arrives and hears of the arrangements for a quiet wedding is not known. One thing is certain, however, she evidently wants a large and brilliant wedding. It is not to be believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

As anticipated in these dispatches some time ago, the house to-day, by a party vote, rejected the bill to give the governor the right to appoint and remove judges of the courts. The bill was passed by a majority of one vote.

Campbell-Weaver contested election from the Sixth district of Iowa. It was well known here that this would be the termination of the campaign. The result was not believed, for she wants to show off all her finery. If this last plan is to be carried out, Mrs. Folsom will have to postpone her wedding of that bridal dress until the first large reception is given in the white house.

That Tired Feeling

Everybody needs and should take a good spring medicine, for two reasons:

1st, The body is now more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season.

2d, The human system has been so long in the blood should be expelled, and the system given tone and strength, before the prostrating effects of warm weather are felt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best spring medicine. A single trial will convince you of its superiority. Take it before it is too late.

The Best Spring Medicine

"I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring medicine, and I feel it is the best thing I have ever used. It has given me a new system and makes me feel like a new man. My wife takes it for dyspepsia, and she derives great benefit from it. She says it is the best medicine she ever took." F. C. Turner, Hood & Ladd No. 1, Boston, Mass.

"Last spring I was troubled with several kinds of skin eruptions, and I had been using various remedies, but nothing did me any good. I had taken a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I feel it is the best medicine I ever took. It has given me a new system and makes me feel like a new man. My wife takes it for dyspepsia, and she derives great benefit from it. She says it is the best medicine she ever took." F. C. Turner, Hood & Ladd No. 1, Boston, Mass.

"I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a spring medicine, and I feel it is the best thing I have ever used. It has given me a new system and makes me feel like a new man. My wife takes it for dyspepsia, and she derives great benefit from it. She says it is the best medicine she ever took." F. C. Turner, Hood & Ladd No. 1, Boston, Mass.

"Last spring I was troubled with several kinds of skin eruptions, and I had been using various remedies, but nothing did me any good. I had taken a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I feel it is the best medicine I ever took. It has given me a new system and makes me feel like a new man. My wife takes it for dyspepsia, and she derives great benefit from it. She says it is the best medicine she ever took." F. C. Turner, Hood & Ladd No. 1, Boston, Mass.